PEACE FROG

PROFILE OF PEACE FROG

This highly acclaimed act pays tribute to Jim Morrison and the doors by recreating the magic and intensity of a doors concert experience. Based out of Venice, California, lead singer Tony Fernandez lives out every move of Jim Morrison on stage and delivers a powerful recreation of true likeness in presence, vocals, mannerisms and spirit. Peace Frog is the drama and rock theater that made the doors famous. Dark and spooky, mystical and hypnotic, the band demonstrates the ability to transform any room into an actual doors concert experience. With intoxicating renditions of "Hello, I love You", "Light My Fire", "L.A. Woman", "The End" and many more doors classic songs, Peace Frog has the crowd entranced! Peace frog is must see for all doors fans and for anyone looking to experience an amazing show!

Redondo Beach sets sights on the '60s

The Beachstock Pop Festival lets all you reformed hippies take a step back in time.

Deborah Paul
Saves the Whizzer
Resting the old pukka shells, wash the be-dyed T-shirts and rewash your Day-Glo beachbands.
But unless you've maintained your '60s wardrobe, search the hip-huggers. Any pair of raggedy, bleached bell bottoms and a Nehru jacket will do.
With your attire set, you'll be ready for the first-ever Beachstock Pop Festival: A Tribute to the Hippie Era, starting Friday at the Redondo Beach Seaside Lagoon and sponsored by the Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce.

For $10, aging hippies and their families can tune in, turn on and break out today will be provided by rock 'n' roll bands and '70s alive with their impersonations of such acts as Bob Dylan and Fleetwood.
"This was an event searching for a venue," sound engineer and promoter

Joel Gilbert (Bob Dylan), Tony Fernandez (Jim Morrison), Larry Rousseau (Carlos Santana) and Chanel Furman (Stevie Nicks) are among the rock impersonators who will be featured this weekend during Redondo Beach's Best-ever Beachstock Pop Festival.
